HE IS NOW DEAD

J. J. Jones, of Calloway, Dies From an Alleged Assault.

EZELL ALLEGED ASSAILANT

Suit Was Filed Last Week For Damages Against Ezell In the Mayfield Circuit Court.

EZELL WELL KNOWN TOBACCO BUYER

J. J. Jones, a well known man of Calloway county, near Graves, died today at his home from injuries received some time ago in a difficulty with C. V. Ezell, a well known tobacco buyer of Mayfield.

It seems that Jones sold a crop of tobacco to one of the Ezell brothers, and when he delivered it at Mayfield delivered it to the other one, and got more than the contract price. When C. V. Ezell returned and learned of the delivery and the price paid, he produced his contract showing that the money paid was more than the contract called for and went after Jones whom he found standing in his wagon preparatory to leaving Mayfield for home.

It is said that Ezell walked up and after a few words seized a stick that was in the wagon and struck Jones with it, knocking him out of the wagon. The mules ran away and Jones was badly hurt, but it was not thought fatally.

A few days ago he brought suit against Ezell for $5,000 damages for the alleged assault. It appears from today's dispatches that he never recovered, but finally died from the

DIED IN HOSPITAL.

Van Jameson, colored, died at the Illinois Central railroad hospital yesterday. He had given his address as Springfield, Ill., but when a telegram was sent to his people no response was received. There has been no disposal of the remains so far and the officials are waiting for a communication from his people if they can be traced and found.

PADUCAH BOYS WIN.

The L. A. L. Baseball Club went to Metropolis yesterday afternoon in a wagon and met the Metropolis team in a match game. The local team was victorious by a score of 16 to 6. It was an easy walkover for the boys and adds one more victory to their already long list.

SPORTS GO TO ILLINOIS.

This afternoon a crowd of Paducah sports are over in Illinois enjoying a cock fight. There will be five contests between Princeton and Paducah birds and some lively sport is anticipated, if the Illinois deputy sheriffs do not catch on.

WILL BE DROPPED.

The regular meeting of the Council will be held tonight, and it is understood that no report in the city physician case will be made. The matter will probably be allowed to drop. The other matters that will come up were foretold in Saturday's paper.

FOR SALE.—A gentle horse and phaeton. Apply at 512 S. Sixth Street. 17j lwh
